ANNUAL SHORTHORN SALE

COLUMBUS GROVE
Shorthorn Breeders' Association

SALE AT THE ROBERT TUDOR FARM

VAUGHNSVILLE, OHIO
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1943

For more than a quarter of a century, this association has functioned and the cattle of its members have improved. The fifty-one lots listed in this catalog, in type and character, as well as in breeding, are equal or superior to any other state or district sale offering of the year. Come to the sale and you will be convinced of the truth of this statement.

Goldspurs Stamp, top bull of our 1942 sale. His sire is the Ohio State Fair junior champion, Browndale Stamp, owned by Tudor Bros. and sired by the famous Browndale Commander. In this sale there are three brothers, five sisters, four uncles, two aunts and eleven cousins of Goldspur's Stamp.

Foreword

In joining with Maxwalton Farms and Strowan Farms in a three sale series, we enable buyers to select from 161 of the best Shorthorns in America with a minimum of travel and time. It is only two miles from Strowan Farms to the Robert Tudor Farm where this sale will be held. We expect to complete both sales between 11:00 A. M. and 4:00 P. M. on November 2, the day following the Maxwalton sale.

Every consignor to this sale has selected for his offering cattle of which he feels justly proud and cattle that will improve the breed. The offering as a whole is superior to any that we have sold heretofore yet we have an enviable record of pleasing our customers.

The pedigrees of all of the cattle that will be sold and pictures of many of them appear in this catalog. The more you study them, the more you will appreciate their worth as breeding animals and the profit they can make for you but to estimate their true worth, they must be seen. Come to Vaughnsville on November 2d. It will be a red letter day for all who acquire some of these grand Shorthorns.

The Columbus Grove Shorthorn Breeders' Ass'n.

Willard Moser, Sale Manager.

KLAYMOR DIAMOND 2048553

Klaymor Diamond 2048553 is one of the best sires that has come to Ohio in recent years. He was Roy Johnson's choice of all the bulls in the 1940 Klaymor sale. That Roy was right is indicated by the fact that one of his daughters topped Klaymor's 1941 sale and another was the third top female in the December, 1942 sales in Chicago, where she sold for $1150.00. His get in this sale and at the Ohio State Sales are tops. His sire is Aldie Reynoldstown (Imp.) that was a double grandson of Collynie Royal Leader. His dam, Princess Alice (Imp.), is by the famous Calrossie Grand Slam.
